INTRODUCTION

The FAMUR Group stands for over one hundred years of experience and advanced engineering know-how that help our customers to unlock operational efficiency and improve safety. We put a lot of effort into making high-performance and reliable machinery and equipment mainly for the mining industry, but also for the transport, cargo handling and energy industries, all with customer satisfaction in mind.

All FAMUR-branded products are based on proven and intuitive solutions, which allows us to complete the most complex jobs worldwide. Our specialised facilities in Poland build powered longwall systems, roadheading systems, underground and surface transport and handling systems, surface mining machines as well as equipment for transport of bulk materials and material handling.

With our broad and customised offering, we are capable of supplying end-to-end mining systems to mines, turnkey coal feeding systems to power plants, and specialist cargo handling equipment to ports. We also design and supply IT systems for managing mineral extraction operations. We are continually growing and consistently expanding our international footprint. The machinery and technology offered by the FAMUR Group are used by numerous mines, ports and industrial plants across five continents. Our companies based in Russia, Kazakhstan, India and Germany guarantee ongoing customer service and fast response expected by our customers. We are constantly raising the bar on service quality and extend our outreach to new locations where reliable mining and industrial systems are needed.

We are aware of the impacts our operations have on the environment and local communities, and we recognise that our business relies on natural resource extraction. Hence our commitment to operating in a responsible and sustainable manner. Our business model incorporates corporate social responsibility (CSR) and ethical norms and standards. From respect for the natural environment, we strive to minimise the adverse environmental footprint of our operations. We also expect our suppliers to conform to robust ethical standards, also with respect to environmental protection. We aim to be a reliable and trusted partner to our customers and other external stakeholders affected by our operations.

Our corporate image building is based on sound financial performance but also on our openness to the needs of local communities and strong, trusting stakeholder relationships. Our charitable giving policy and corporate social responsibility play a central role in our decision making and corporate culture.

With the well-being of society in mind, FAMUR engages in projects supporting various social, family, cultural and scientific initiatives, charitable foundations and sport events, with a special focus on the development and education of children and youth. We believe that by supporting their development, skills and passions, we help them make informed decisions and shape their future responsibly. Investing in education and development is the most valuable contribution to society. Therefore, we have established lasting relationships with organisations offering educational and development support and providing access to best practices in this field to people in Poland.

Our sponsorship activities target mainly local community initiatives and needs in our immediate environment. Our sponsorship activities also include initiatives aimed at promoting FAMUR and its business at conferences, trade fairs and other events held under our patronage. The purpose of our sponsorship efforts is to implement our strategy by showcasing our operational and corporate strength.

This Charitable Giving Policy describes philanthropic initiatives undertaken by the FAMUR Group, highlights the role of sponsorships and charitable giving in driving business growth, provides a list of supported initiatives and types of donations, and explains the value and importance of corporate social responsibility in running a manufacturing business.

This Policy aims to harmonise the rules of charitable giving in place at FAMUR S.A. and its subsidiaries. Therefore, it forms an integral part of the corporate culture across the FAMUR Group and reflects the corporate growth strategy in the areas of corporate social responsibility, sustainable development and external communication.
